University of London Business Programmes

The University of London is truly one of the greatest universities in the world. The University is a federation of 18 world-class Colleges and 10 specialised institutes, with a student population of more than 120,000. The University's reputation for high academic standards has been built on the outstanding teaching and research of its Colleges since 1836, and its degrees are recognised internationally by governments, universities, employers and professional bodies as being of a high academic quality and standard.

For over 150 years, University of London degrees have been accessible to students all over the world through the University of London Programmes. Over the years, many exceptional people who have studied with the University of London Programmes have shaped our world. Former students include seven Nobel Prize winners, leaders of commonwealth countries, government ministers, renowned authors, academics, judges and business leaders. Today, the University of London Programmes is truly international in character with more than 50,000 students in 180 different countries.

Academic Direction: London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE)

Academic direction for all of the courses offered through the University of London Programmes is provided by the Colleges of the University. Academics at these Colleges develop the syllabi, prepare the study materials, and are responsible for the assessment of students. In the case of the BSc Accounting and Finance, BSc Banking and Finance, BSc Business and Management and BSc Economics and Management programmes, academic direction is provided by the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE). LSE has consistently been ranked at the highest level amongst universities in the United Kingdom.

Programme Highlights

- The degree is awarded by the University of London and the programme is academically developed and managed by the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE);
- In 2018, LSE was ranked 5th worldwide in the subjects of Accounting & Finance; 7th worldwide in the subjects of Economics & Econometrics; 9th worldwide in the subjects of Business & Management Studies; and 35th worldwide overall in QS World University Rankings.

Graduate Entry Route

Students who hold a full first degree completed in a minimum of 3 years duration on a full-time basis (or equivalent) from an university or other institutions acceptable to the University of London will be considered.

Duration of Study and Awards

The normal duration of the programme is 3 years. With full exemptions from the first year of study, students may complete BSc Accounting and Finance, BSc Banking and Finance, BSc Business and Management and BSc Economics and Management in 2 years.

Upon satisfactory completion of the programme, students will be awarded BSc Accounting and Finance/ BSc Banking and Finance/BSc Business and Management/BSc Economics and Management.

When students graduate with a degree, diploma or certificate from the University of London, they will be sent two documents - a final diploma (i.e. the parchment they receive following graduation) and a Diploma Supplement.

The final diploma will indicate that the student was registered with the University of London and awarded a University of London degree, diploma or certificate, and included the name of the Academic Direction which conducted the examinations. The University of London logo and signature of the Vice-Chancellor of the University of London are incorporated. The Diploma Supplement will describe the nature, level and content of the programme the student successfully completed and include a transcript of courses taken and marks achieved, as well as the overall classification. It also provides further information about the role of the Academic Direction and method of study.

Degrees are awarded with the following classifications: First Class Honours, Second Class Honours (divided into Upper Division and Lower Division), Third Class Honours and Pass.

Teaching Mode

The teaching methods include lectures and tutorials. Staff members consist of HKU SPACE and overseas lecturers.

Assessment

Assessment will be done by examination. Each course is assessed by one three-hour written examination determined by the University of London. All examinations are held once a year in May/June.

LOU, Kenley

- Secondary School Studies, Centre for International Education British School (Philippines) (2007-13)
- Pre-University (IGCSE & A Levels), Centre for International Education British School (Philippines) (2012-14)
- BSc Business and Management - First Class Honours (2014-17)
- MSc Accounting and Finance, The London School of Economics and Political Science (2018-)

“ I was fascinated by how such a prestigious degree from one of world’s best social science and management universities could be offered and studied in Hong Kong and around any corner of the world.

Graduating with first-class honours from the programme has opened up numerous paths for me in both graduate studies and career opportunities. I am sincerely grateful to the University of London and HKU SPACE for providing this once in a lifetime opportunity. ”

POU Yuh Jau, Calvin

- Wah Yan College Hong Kong (HKDSE) (2008-14)
- BSc Banking and Finance - First Class Honours (2014-17)
- Recipient of HKU SPACE IC Scholarship (2014)

“ This programme provides advanced academic content both from a theoretical and practical point of view, which ranges across, for examples, learning sophisticated and complicated instruments that banks use in daily operations, using complex econometrics tools and concepts to analyse data points, as well as measuring the current economy within a country at a macro level.

All in all, this programme gives me a good insight in both fields of banking and finance, and I am amazed by how the programme pushed me to the boundaries in learning a significant amount of knowledge within these fruitful three years. ”

SHAM Dominic, Joseph

- Higher Diploma for Legal Executive, HKU SPACE Po Leung Kuk Stanley Ho Community College (2011-13)
- BSc in Business - First Class Honours (2013-16)
- Accounting Officer, Construction Engineering Corporation (2016-)

“ With only 12 marks in the HKCEE and merely getting a 3.00 GPA in the Higher Diploma, I never thought that I could successfully graduate with a 1st Class Honours in an undergraduate degree, not mentioning this is a degree lead by the LSE, one of the top 100 universities in the world.

The programme not only gives me a bachelor degree, but also helps me to explore and enhance my interest, skills and mentality which would be useful for both academic and vocational use. ”
